FRIENDS

AT TIMES OF NEED
WHEN YOUR PROBLEM NEVER ENDS
YOU FEEL DOWN AND LONELY
THAT'S WHY YOU HAVE FRIENDS

MY FRIENDS MEAN ALOT TO ME
I THINK MORE THAN THEY KNOW
I WISH AT TIMES THEY COULD SEE THIS
BECAUSE I MIGHT NOT ALWAYS LET IT SHOW

WHEN I THINK OF LEAVING THEM
IT BRINGS TEARS TO MY EYES
BUT I KNOW THAT THEY'LL BE THERE FOR ME
SO SOMEONE WILL COMFORT MY CRIES

THEY DON'T KNOW HOW AND WHAT I FEEL
THEY CAN'T SEE INSIDE OF ME
WE'VE BEEN TOGETHER A LONG TIME
BUT SOMEDAY WE MUST BREAK FREE.

DEDICATION

We the Class of 1987 dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Jarvis for all the help and support he has given to us in the past three years.

JUNIOR PROM

The Junior Prom was held on April 11, 1986 at Diburro's Restaurant.

GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

The girls' gymnastics team was very successful this year. Our captain, Wendy Gould, led the team to many exciting wins. The team was very ambitious and had a lot of enthusiasm.

Our coaches were Pam Earley and Cheryl Sprague. They were the best coaches the team could ever have asked for.

We had a great season and hope to make it even better next year.

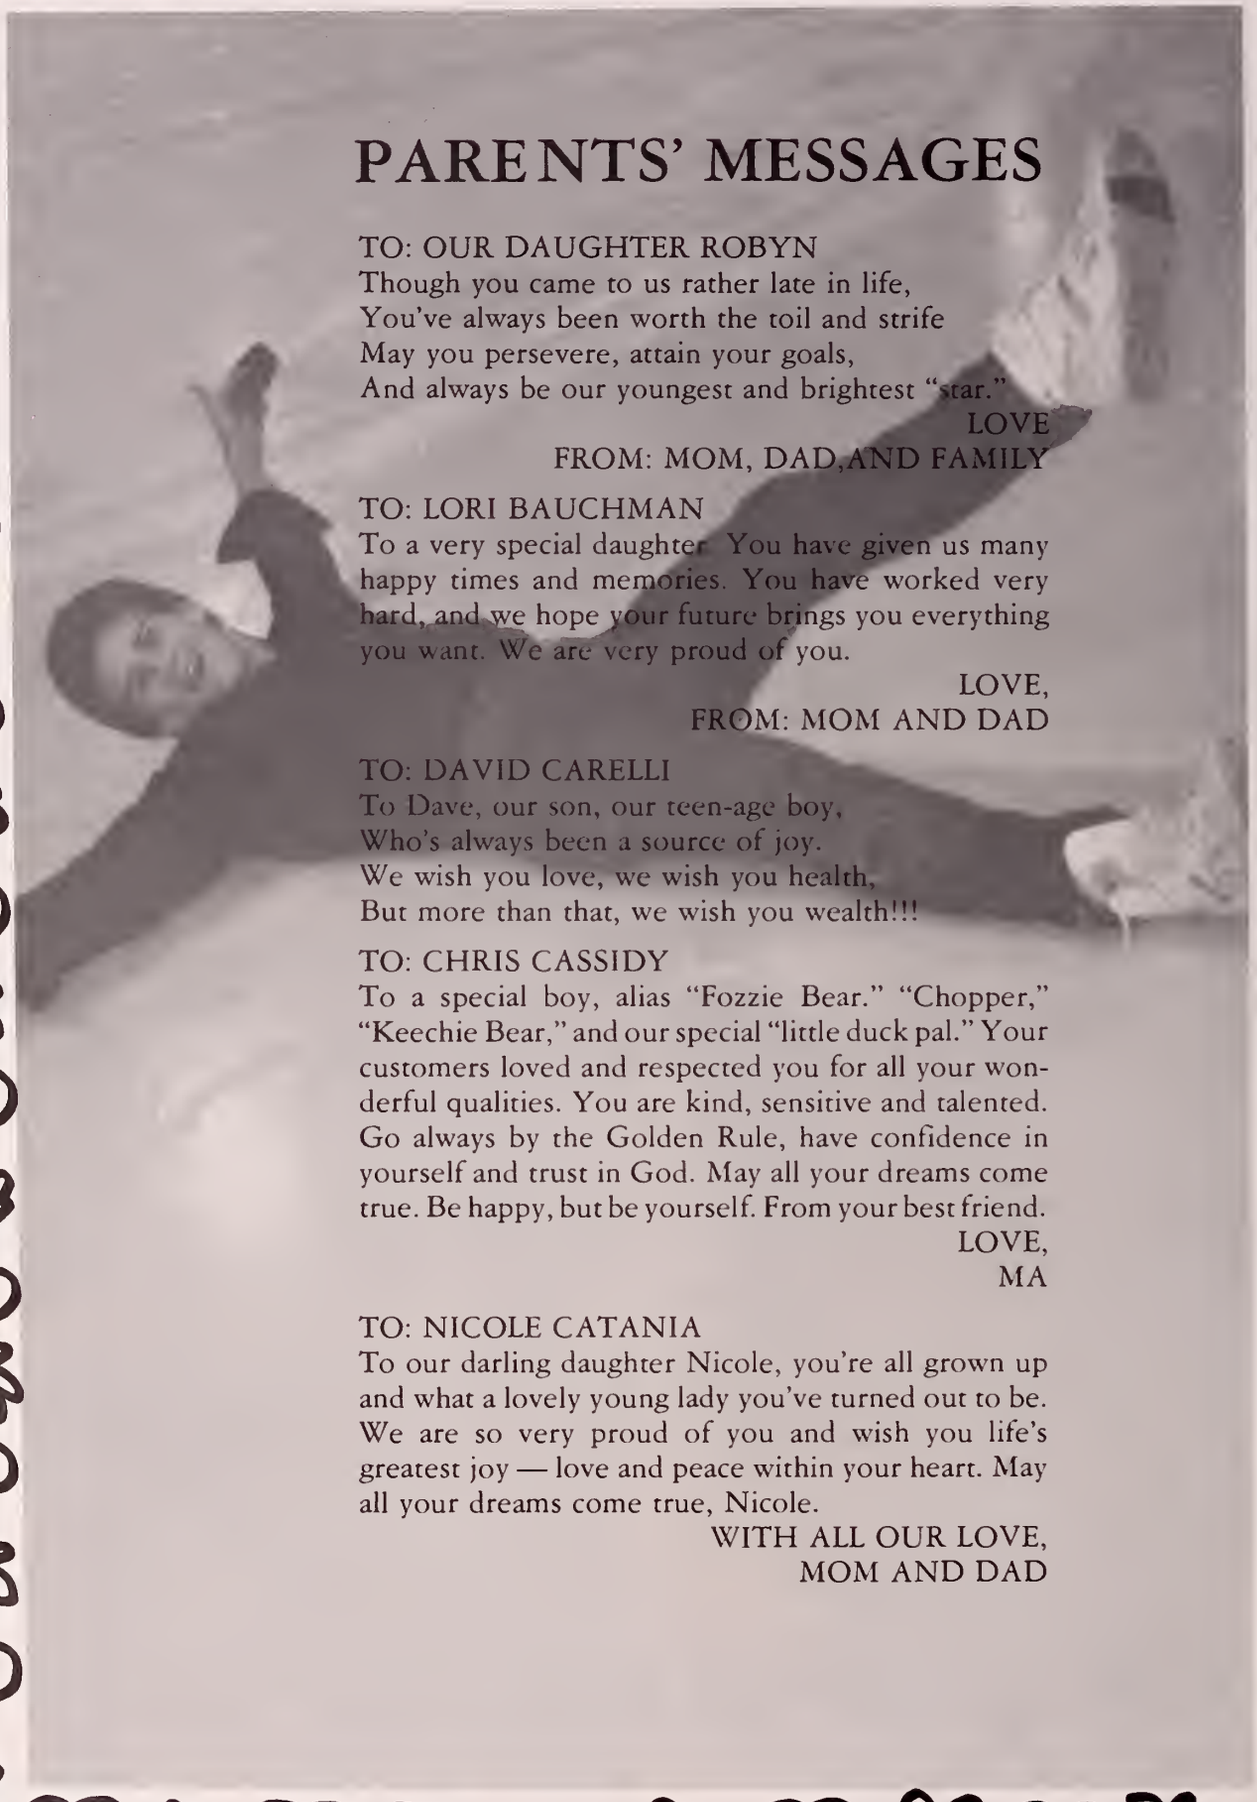
ADVERTISEMENTS



PARENTS' MESSAGES

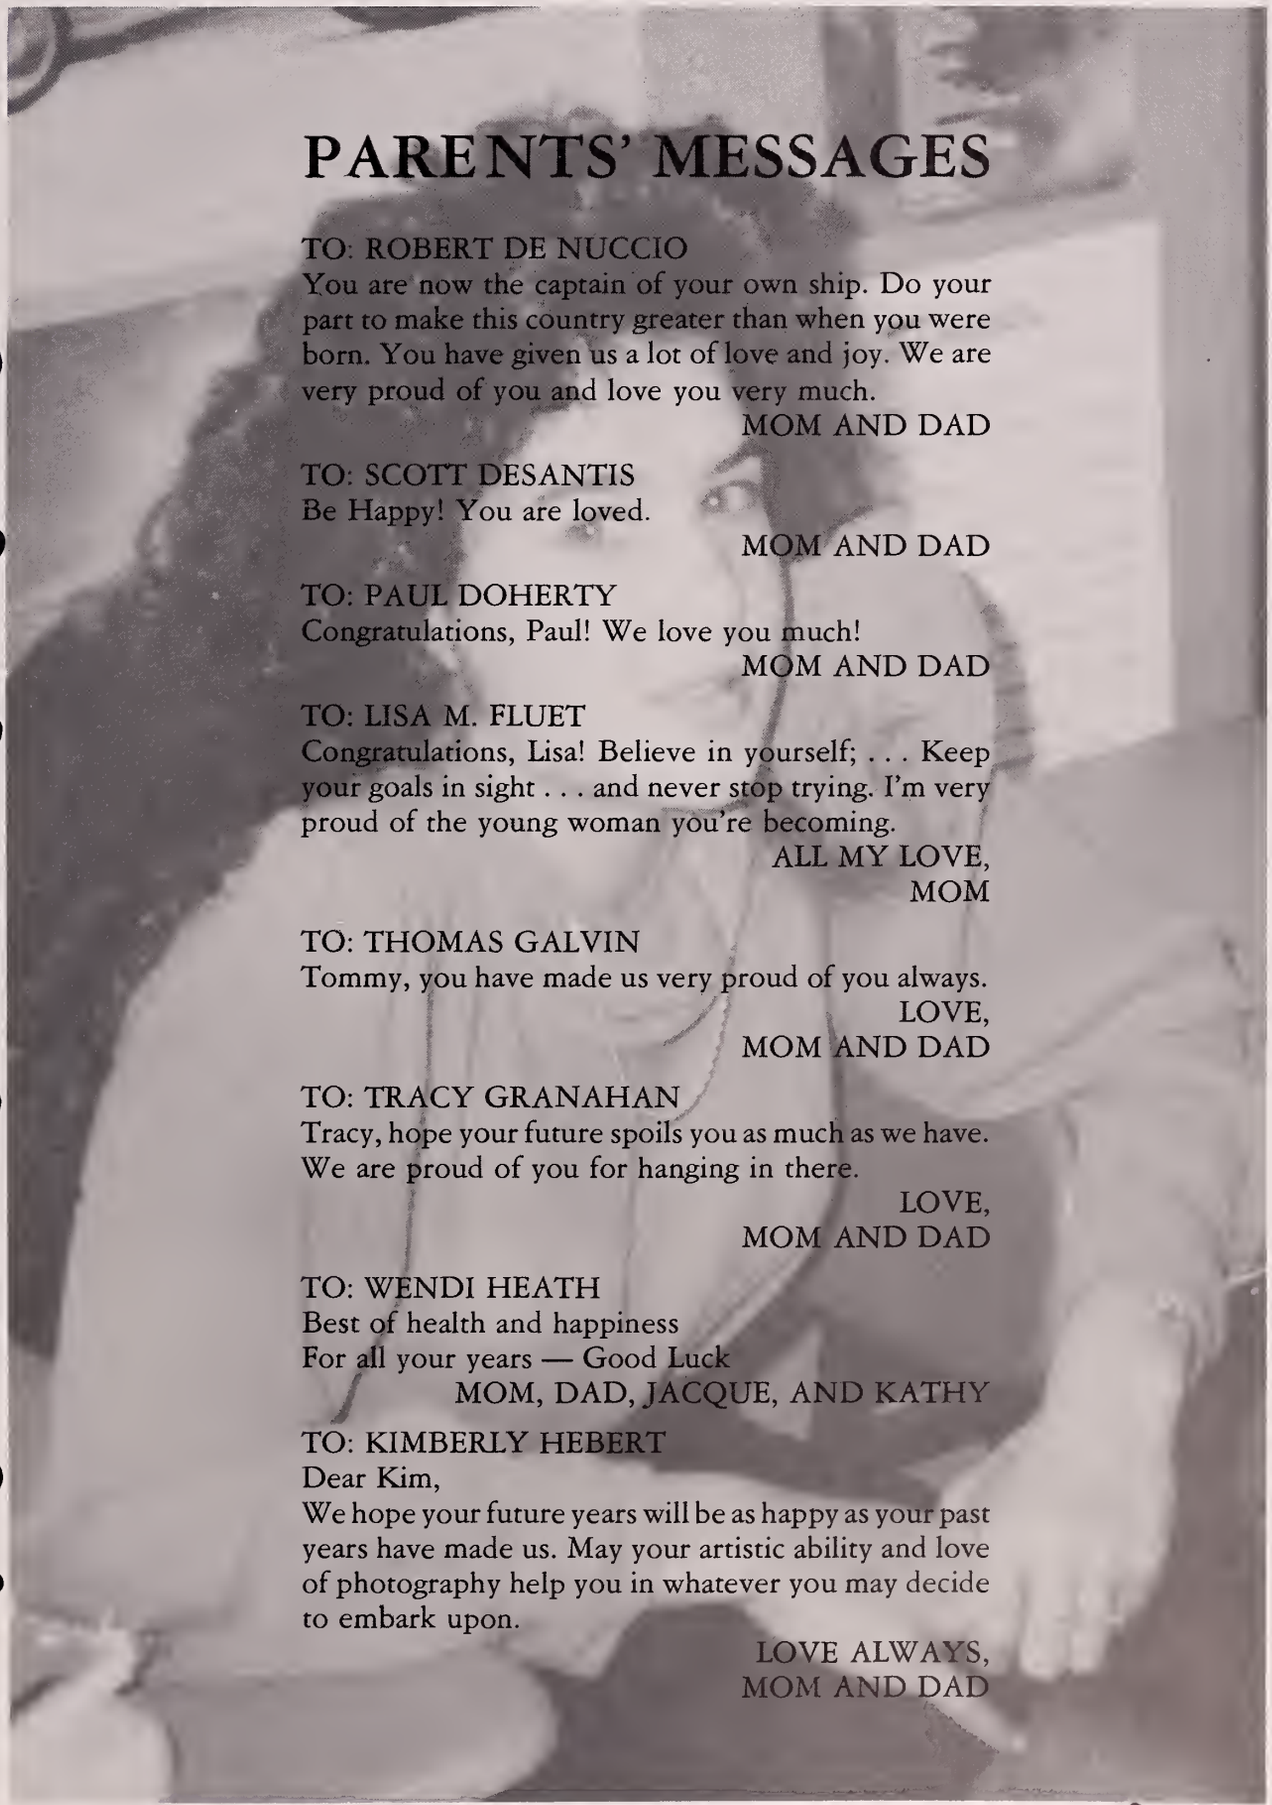
TO: OUR DAUGHTER ROBYN
Though you came to us rather late in life,
You've always been worth the toil and strife
May you persevere, attain your goals,
And always be our youngest and brightest "star."
LOVE
FROM: MOM, DAD,AND FAMILY

TO: LORI BAUCHMAN
To a very special daughter. You have given us many happy times and memories. You have worked very hard, and we hope your future brings you everything you want. We are very proud of you.
LOVE,
FROM: MOM AND DAD

TO: DAVID CARELLI
To Dave, our son, our teen-age boy,
Who's always been a source of joy.
We wish you love, we wish you health,
But more than that, we wish you wealth!!!

TO: CHRIS CASSIDY
To a special boy, alias "Fozzie Bear." "Chopper," "Keechie Bear," and our special "little duck pal." Your customers loved and respected you for all your wonderful qualities. You are kind, sensitive and talented. Go always by the Golden Rule, have confidence in yourself and trust in God. May all your dreams come true. Be happy, but be yourself. From your best friend.
LOVE,
MA

TO: NICOLE CATANIA
To our darling daughter Nicole, you're all grown up and what a lovely young lady you've turned out to be. We are so very proud of you and wish you life's greatest joy — love and peace within your heart. May all your dreams come true, Nicole.
WITH ALL OUR LOVE,
MOM AND DAD



PARENTS' MESSAGES

TO: ROBERT DE NUCCIO
You are now the captain of your own ship. Do your part to make this country greater than when you were born. You have given us a lot of love and joy. We are very proud of you and love you very much.

MOM AND DAD

TO: SCOTT DESANTIS
Be Happy! You are loved.

MOM AND DAD

TO: PAUL DOHERTY
Congratulations, Paul! We love you much!

MOM AND DAD

TO: LISA M. FLUET
Congratulations, Lisa! Believe in yourself; . . . Keep your goals in sight . . . and never stop trying. I'm very proud of the young woman you're becoming.

ALL MY LOVE,
MOM

TO: THOMAS GALVIN
Tommy, you have made us very proud of you always.

LOVE,
MOM AND DAD

TO: TRACY GRANAHAN
Tracy, hope your future spoils you as much as we have. We are proud of you for hanging in there.

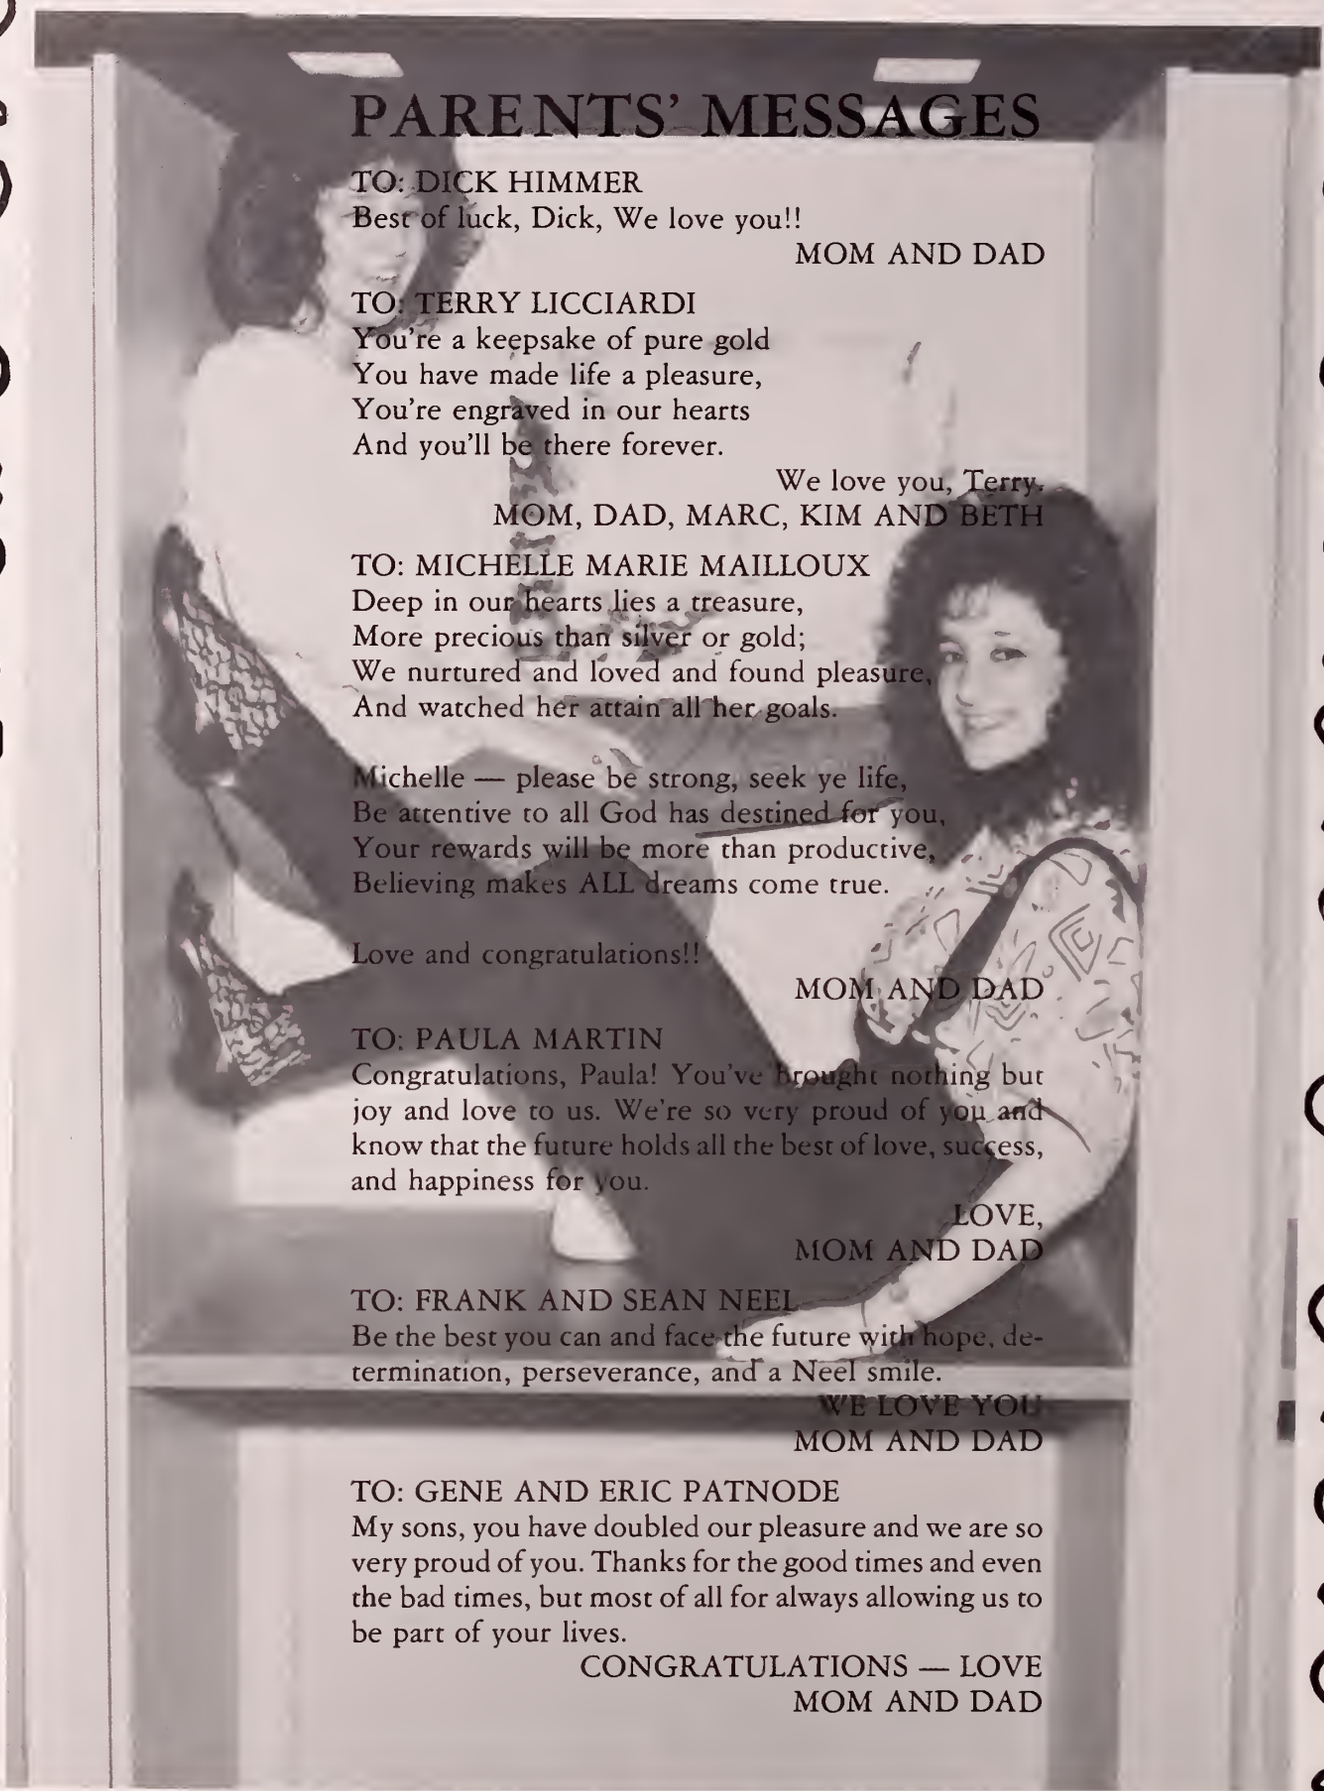
LOVE,
MOM AND DAD

TO: WENDI HEATH
Best of health and happiness
For all your years — Good Luck

MOM, DAD, JACQUE, AND KATHY

TO: KIMBERLY HEBERT
Dear Kim,
We hope your future years will be as happy as your past years have made us. May your artistic ability and love of photography help you in whatever you may decide to embark upon.

LOVE ALWAYS,
MOM AND DAD



PARENTS' MESSAGES

TO: DICK HIMMER
Best of luck, Dick, We love you!!

MOM AND DAD

TO: TERRY LICCIARDI
You're a keepsake of pure gold
You have made life a pleasure,
You're engraved in our hearts
And you'll be there forever.

We love you, Terry.
MOM, DAD, MARC, KIM AND BETH

TO: MICHELLE MARIE MAILLOUX
Deep in our hearts lies a treasure,
More precious than silver or gold;
We nurtured and loved and found pleasure,
And watched her attain all her goals.

Michelle — please be strong, seek ye life,
Be attentive to all God has destined for you,
Your rewards will be more than productive,
Believing makes ALL dreams come true.

Love and congratulations!!

MOM AND DAD

TO: PAULA MARTIN
Congratulations, Paula! You've brought nothing but joy and love to us. We're so very proud of you and know that the future holds all the best of love, success, and happiness for you.

LOVE,
MOM AND DAD

TO: FRANK AND SEAN NEEL
Be the best you can and face the future with hope, determination, perseverance, and a Neel smile.

WE LOVE YOU
MOM AND DAD

TO: GENE AND ERIC PATNODE
My sons, you have doubled our pleasure and we are so very proud of you. Thanks for the good times and even the bad times, but most of all for always allowing us to be part of your lives.

CLASS HISTORY

We the Class of 1987 entered Methuen High hopeful and ready for new challenges. Our first days were filled with confusion as we struggled to find which way was up (or North and South) and figure out what all those letters painted on the walls meant. After a couple of weeks we finally got settled down and elected our first class officers: Chris Scuderi — President, Nicole Kumitski — Vice President, Dorothy Hall — Treasurer, and Paula Gorrie — Secretary. Our Freshman athletic teams had tough times, with only the football girls' basketball, and boys' spring track teams making or breaking .500. Three freshman girls played on the varsity field hockey team: Lisa Mignault, Kristen Shiber, and Kris Zannini. The end of the year finally came, and we elected our sophomore class officers. They were: Mike Naffah — President, Betsy Moran and Nichole Kuzmitski, co-Vice-Presidents, Lisa Fluet — Treasurer, and Paula Gorrie — Secretary.

The fall sports season brought its share of excitement when the Methuen High football team made it all the way to the Super Bowl for the first time ever. Sophomores Scott Petrie and Terry Donovan played for the Rangers but were not able to hold off Plymouth Carver — Methuen lost 14 to 12.

Sophomore Jon Mulrooney began to make his presence known on the Methuen High stage when he portrayed Nicely-Nicely in the school musical "Guys and Dolls." The Junior class elections brought in a few new faces — Steve Baddout — President, Ed Higginbottom — Vice-President, Maureen Henry — Treasurer; and Rena Mello — Secretary.

When we arrived at MHS after a short summer we were startled to see these tall, tan things dividing every four classrooms and isolating corner rooms. We were told that these were the new walls that would reduce noise and raise our SAT's - they did neither, but they seemed to be here to stay. The soccer team reached the state, only to fall in the first round to Salem 1-0. Juniors playing for the team were Pete Vicari, Chris Wnek, Bob Roeger and Bill Caraccio. The girls' basketball team was undefeated and went on to win the Division One State Championship led by the twin towers Darlene Orlando and Julie Ciarcia. The candidates for Girls' State and Boys' State were chosen. They were Steve Baddour, Dave Rossell, Jon Mulrooney, Tim Flanagan, Keith Kerman, and Ed Higginbottom who all went Boys' State at Bentley College. Nancy Cianciolo, Paula Martin, and Liz Thoma all attended Girls' State at Bridgewater State College. The Junior semi-formal was held at DiBurro's, and a good time was had by all, though there were more people at Al Arcilla's beach cottage after the prom than had been at DiBurro's. We elected our Senior Class officers. Steve Baddour was once again elected President, Maureen Henry — Treasurer, Tom Galvin — Vice-President, and Rena Mello — Secretary. In our Senior year on the sports scene, the hockey team made the states for the first time. The Senior Class Play was Ma Hovanasian's 30th, and, as always it was a hit. Jon Mulrooney stole the show in "Happy Daze" with Kristen Shiber giving an incredibly believable performance as his brat sister.

The April showers this year brought three days out of school when the biggest flood since '38 hit the Merrimack Valley. There were few complaints from students at this, but there was an outcry when Dr. Z. tried to fire our fearless leader, Mr. Jarvis. We won't get into that here — but let it suffice to say that "the good doctor" succeeded. It is regrettable, but C'est la vie. We're almost outa here now, anyway.

Having taken our final exams, we have left only Awards Night, The Prom, and last, but not least, Graduation on Sunday, May 31.

The Class of 1987 fondly bids farewell to Methuen High School.

CLASS WILL

Let it be known that we, the Class of 1987 of Methuen High School, being of sound and reasonable mind and realizing the uncertainties of life upon leaving these hallowed halls of learning, do hereby decree this to be our last will and testament:

I, Gina, leave Danny my friendship for life and all the memories we've shared for the past 4 1/2 years — thanks!

I, Din-Din, leave you, Matebu, all my love.

We, Kristen, Josie, and Erin, leave Mr. Whiting one last excuse why we took all three lunches.

We, the Class of 1987, leave Carol Hajali and Nicole Catania a map on how to get to school and stay there.

We, the class who had Mrs. Eckman as juniors, would like to leave her our analysis books, because we've finished learning through osmosis, photosynthesis, or any other such process!

I, Paula, leave Joe Parker a spare set of keys and a windshield wiper.

Michelle and Paula leave Young a big hug!

I, Donna, leave Lisa the memories of breakfast at McDonald's.

I, Michael, leave to Gina, a book of passes out of the building and a coupon book to different restaurants so she can try a new one every day at lunch!

We, the unfortunates in Mr. Lebowitz's homeroom, would like to leave him the games of "Concentration" and "Memory" so that he can brush up on his memory skills.

We, the same seniors, would also like to leave him a list of seniors who won't be in his homeroom.

I, Michael Rademacher, leave Robyn Abesamra a Toro snowblower so she can dig through the four feet of snow at her cottage.

I, Beth, leave Kevin lots of thanks for all the great times we've shared together and the awesome memories he's given me.

I, Lynette, leave Al Arcila, Alan DiGennaro, Debbie Holland, and Alan Kenyon the choice between "truth" or "dare."

I, Devony, leave Reese and Toni another night in Methuen Square taping the "Twilight Zone."

We, the senior class, leave all of Mr. Ziminski's future classes pillows so they can sleep more comfortably.

I, Terry Licciardi, leave Dan Kiley lunch money for the rest of his life.

I, Shannon, leave Tracy, Holly, and Dorothy another interesting week in the Bahamas.

I, Todd, leave Mr. Pag a thousand and one "good words" to impress his students with next year.

To Mike Drouin, I leave the remains of my finger that I lost on our school trip.

I, Lynette, leave Debbie a dog food bowl full of ice water for the long hot summer ahead.

I, Laurie St. Jean, leave Erin a watch set an hour ahead so she'll always be on time.

Lynette and Valerie would like to leave Alan Kenyon two lunches.

I, Mike, leave to Lynn a case of Planter peanuts and a case of Diet Coke, in bottles.

I, Paul, leave Arthur Hardy and Marc Jordan two hair pieces to cover those annoying bald spots.

I, Lynette, leave Debbie the good times we've had in the past, twelve years. Thanks for everything!

We, the football and track teams leave Ernie Ditiore a life size poster of Dave Ramirez with the caption: "I Want To Be Just Like You."

We, Paul, Tom, Pete, Ed, and Mike leave Sean C. a castle in Bagdad to keep his [illegible] harem therein.

We, the senior football linemen, leave coach Golec this answer, "Yes, we'd rather be on the bus!"

We, Kristen and Kris, leave to all Erin's McGreevy's passengers, a very strong seat belt and a blindfold.

We, the senior class, leave Rob Andrew a girlfriend who treats him right (he deserves it!)

I, Erin, leave Kristen, SLY — — — You Wish!!

We, the senior class, leave Lisa O'Brien a gift certificate to Supercuts.

I, Dan Kiley, leave Shannon Vaughan a new leash and collar for Chris Wnek.

I, Erin, leave Pam, Lynellen, Donna, Karen, Paula, etc., one more year at MHS — — — you [illegible]

I, Shannon, leave all my friends the good times at Methuen High and the best of wishes for the future.

CLASS PROPHECY

Billy Caraccio and Chris Wnek won the Nobel Prize for their book "How to Steal Other People's Girlfriends."
Lynda DiRamacca, Dana Farelli, Patty, Teddy McCabe and Al Arcila joined the Celtics and Lynda starts as center
Special thanks to John Axford and Geoff Abraham for their contribution of Budweiser Beer now that they own their own brewery.
Helen Park and Young Kim have now become fashion consultants and are now able to coordinate their outfits.
Dickie Himmer and Brian Hadley are now teaching in a nursery school
Sheryl Cormier went to war as the commanding Admiral of her own navy.
Paula Gorrie lost her hair and opened a wig shop called "Mushrooms are Us."
Jen Lavertue is still stuck in a 50's time warp.
Jennifer Lumb is currently serving 5 years in prison for writing "I love Kevin" on bridges across the country.
Sean Neel has replaced Gene Simmons in the rock group KISS.
Dave Mullen, Eric Patnode and Billy Houser are stars in the remake of the movie "Hair."
Randy Perillo has given a tuft of his hair to a laboratory which chemically reproduced it to create steel wool.
Mike Naffah got a guest spot on the Muppets.
Donna Therrien finally had her plastic bracelet surgically removed.
Wendy Moran married Scott and they were asked to continue the Brady Bunch series.
Chris Zannini starred in a Broadway play and sued when the lead actor dropped her in a fainting scene.
Albert Arcila and Alan Kenyon are in the Guinness Book of World Records for owning the most Porsches. This was due to their recent success in their film "Butch and Sheila — The Movie."
Michael Cronis now has a body to fill his muscle shirts.
Alan DiGenarro and Joseph Campagna bought some gold leather tights and have a job on Solid Gold.
Joel Kurchian will be the president of the FAS club and Rob Denuzzio will handle all the fan mail.
Aimee Levi and Larry Silva finally learned their senior schedule and know where their classes were.
Josie Fragola and Marcy Whittaker opened their own lingerie shop with Laurie St. Jean and Lisa Paradis as their best customers.
Steve Baddour and Ed Higginbottom failed in life, so they joined the Peace Corps and have never been heard from since Michelle Maillioux became a plastic surgeon and fixed Jason Aziz and Paul Doherty's noses.
Steve McGuire, Tom Douglas and Arthur Hardy joined the military forces where they were instrumental in starting a 3rd World War.
Alexis Samra, Rena Mello, and Dawn Arsenault will retire at the age of 28, after becoming the best sanitary engineers in the state.
Lori Bauchman, Dan Kaminsky, Todd Couture and Jeff LaLiberty tried out for the Lawrence Welk Show and ended up just blowing bubbles.
Dan Kiley is touring with Suli Ibraheem to show off their sexy legs.
Dave Marcinkevich, Brian Pekarski, Gene Patnode, Marc Jordan, and Eric Sprague laid down their hockey sticks because they weren't aggressive enough, they now play field hockey for a church organization.
Kathy Hannagan is still going to Golden Fleece and the color of her skin still hasn't changed.
Paul Ramirez became successful on his third book "How to make a car hold together with a roll of tape."
Danny Forest and Dean Salvo finally made it to Boston Garden working at the concession stand.
Kathy Lemiux, Donna Eaton, and Matt Kraunelis reunited as the Beatles and became their lead singers.
Jared Querengasser, Mark Laudani, and Jeff Corbitt became professional comedians and they perform in night clubs, but instead of applause they receive tomatoes.
Paul Monayer, Dave Sanderson, Jerel DeFrancesco opened their own pizza shop called Romano's the 12th
Susan Gangi, Shannon Vaughan, and Kerri Brucato dropped out of beauty school to become construction workers.
Tim Flanagan, Tim Keaney, Neil White, Mike Radamacher, and Mark Fyrer were able to take the training wheels off their bicycles this year.
Amy Rapoza, Tricia Dignam, and Lorri Garon became professional boxers and knocked out Mike Tyson in the 3rd.
Michelle Speight, Anastaia Andromedas, Dawn Augusta, and Gina Contarino are learning to become famous chefs in Boston and cook for great leaders around the world.
Dean Salvo and Billy Giblin opened their own store with 32 different flavors of steroids.
It is said many members could not attend our reunion because they're still trying to pass English in summer school.

VALEDICTORY — 1987

Keith Kerman

Fellow students, distinguished guests, faculty members, parents and friends,

As I address this last meeting of the Methuen High School Class of 1987, I think not only of our past but also of our future. Today signifies not only the end of our high school career, but also the sheltering of our youth.

Until now, we have had our teachers, guidance counselors, athletic coaches, and most importantly, our families to guide and protect us in our daily lives. Yet, as we now look forward to colleges, trade schools, or full-time employment, we must build upon the foundation of education which we received at Methuen High School and the values and lessons engendered by our families and friends and begin to carry the burdens and responsibilities of adulthood.

Shortly, we will be receiving our diplomas, symbolizing the successful completion of our high school education. It is an accomplishment in which we can all take pride, and I'm sure we are all thankful that it is finally here. Yet, no longer will our success be measured by the creativity of our excuses for not arriving to class on time or our ability to complete a homework assignment while eating a doughnut and driving to school.

Each of us will soon be measured by others and by ourselves through our future successes, whether it be in the development of careers or the raising of families. Yet, how does one achieve success? If I knew the answer to this age old question, I'd write a best-selling book and then I would be a success.

I do know that success takes hard work, dedication, and perseverance. I also know that we all have the ability to succeed. Yet, why does it seem inevitable that some of us will succeed and others not?

Perhaps, the answer can be found in the writings of Emily Dickinson. She writes: "Thine enemy may be thyself." — "Thine enemy may be thyself."

Could it be that we, as individuals, act as our fiercest enemy toward future success?

Could it be that we allow our fears, our inhibitions, and our weaknesses, to diminish our enthusiasm, dampen our spirit, and limit our efforts?

Could it be that our fear of failure too often prevents us from attempting to succeed?

Could it be that while others sacrifice for their future, we too often sacrifice our futures through attempts to experience momentary pleasure?

Could it be that we too often blame others for our own shortcomings rather than having the courage to look to ourselves?

Yes, thine enemy may indeed be thyself. Yet, only by recognizing and acknowledging the enemy within ourselves can we know in which direction to wield the sword and clear our path to the future.

I'd just like to end on a personal note. I am the last of 6 children in my family to graduate from Methuen High School. On behalf of my family and myself, we would like to thank publicly the teachers of the Methuen Public Schools, and in particular, the teachers of Methuen High School, for 23 years of dedicated, diligent and outstanding instruction and assistance. Farewell class of 1987. Good luck and thank you.

SHARING THE GIFT

Members of the faculty, administration, parents, friends, and classmates — Welcome to the graduating ceremonies for the Methuen High School Class of 1987.

When I first began thinking about topics for my address, I had some problems. I wasn't sure exactly what I wanted to say. I then thought about the different experiences I have had in high school and the things I felt that were most important to remember. I realized that it is not so much the events of these days that are important, but the days themselves.

The times of high school are important. They are important because of what they bring — the time spent, the lessons learned. These are things which we must take with us into our future. The doors close behind us, we must use what we have learned to open new doors. It is important that we never take for granted the things we have been given — the gift of an education, memories of happy times, and of opportunities for the future. These can never be taken from us. We must learn to use these gifts every day of our lives. It is not so important that we be great people, but rather that we be good people. We must share our education and our opportunities. We must be bold in reaching out to the people around us, to know their needs, and to use everything we have been given to respond to them.

The fact remains that without the support of other people, not one of us would be standing here today. We must in turn support those who need our help. We must learn to be a class of givers — striving for excellence in whatever we may choose to do, not only for ourselves, but for the benefit of those around us. We must give something back to the environment that helped us grow to the point at which we now stand.

And so we say good-bye to high school — and although it may seem as if this is the end of a period of happiness and growth in our lives, as the modern day philosopher Yogi Berra says — "It ain't over 'til the fat lady sings."

Jonathan Mulrooney
Salutatorian — 1987

HONOR ESSAY

Members of the faculty, administration, parents honored guests, friends, fellow classmates:

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow once wrote:

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sand of times.

Each member of the graduating class of 1987 has left behind some footprints during his or her time spent at Methuen High School. Along with the achievements we may have made as scholars, athletes, or leaders, all of us have left behind even deeper impressions on one another. The memories and friendships we leave each other have to be the most meaningful type of footprint ever made in the sand.

I believe that we have learned a great deal from our classmates, and we have taught one another many valuable lessons about life. Loyalty, consideration, and trust are only a few examples of the many fine experiences that the members of this graduating class have shared.

Ideally, the strength of character and the capacity for caring that we have developed through our friendships will carry over into our dealings with other people in the future. In a society where so much emphasis is placed in "succeeding" in the sense of one's occupation or earnings, we must not lose sight of the fact that the most important thing in life is to be truly happy. Happiness is not such a difficult goal to achieve; to be happy we must simply be willing and able to share our success and failures, disappointments and expectations with other people, for to be successful but lonely eliminates a great part of joy.

The friendships we have made here at Methuen High School have been some of the most enjoyable and rewarding aspects of the past four years. In a sense, today, as we graduate, we are not exchanging farewells, but rather we are leaving behind the impressions, or, if you will, the footprints that we have made on one another throughout the years.

Thank you.
